CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser. Should any dispute arise between two or more approved bidders or between the auctioneer and any bidder, the lot in dispute to be put up again or not, at the discretion of the auctioneer. The vendors reserve the right of bidding by themselves or agent and of withdrawing any lot or lots.

2.—No person to advance less than 1s. at each bidding above one pound; above two pounds, 2s.; and so on in proportion.

3.—The purchasers are to pay down immediately a deposit of five shillings in the pound, in part payment, and to give in their names and place of abode when required, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be at the disposal of the auctioneer.

4.—The lots are to be cleared away with all faults, imperfections, or errors of description, on the day following Sale before 5 o'clock, at the purchasers' expense and risk, and the remainder of the purchase-money to be paid before delivery. In cases where any buyer purchases more than one lot the whole of the amount of the lots purchased to be paid for before any one lot is delivered; no lots can on any account be removed during the time of sale, and no allowance whatsoever will be made for errors in description or quantity, but the lots are to be cleared as shown for the sale. The auctioneer does not hold himself responsible for the correct description of any lot or the authenticity of any picture.

5.—The purchasers to be answerable for all damages they may do to any lot, or to the premises, in taking or removing their respective lots; and to properly repair or pay for the same.

6.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions the money deposited shall be forfeited, the lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be resold, either by public sale or by private contract; and the deficiency (if any) by such second sale shall be made good by the defaulter or defaulters at this present sale, and shall be recoverable as and for liquidated damages. The auctioneer does not hold himself responsible for any loss or any damages that may arise to any lots after the fall of the hammer, the purchaser taking all risks.

LASTLY.—The auctioneer officiating is to be the sole arbitrator in every matter of dispute.

CHEQUES NOT TAKEN IN PAYMENT.
